Musical Theatre Information

Auditions

On the first day of camp, each student will audition for a singing, dancing, and/or speaking role and is allowed to verbally specify in which areas they are most interested in at the time of their audition. Each student should come prepared to perform a song no longer than one minute, sung with an accompaniment track on an iPod, iPhone, or a CD, or sung a cappella.

If a student comes unprepared with their own song, they will have the option of singing "Happy Birthday." If this is your student's first time auditioning, they will have the option of either auditioning in front of the group or for the staff privately.

In addition to the vocal audition there will be a dance audition that will be shown to the students on Monday morning. Students should also be prepared to do a cold read if asked.

At Outpost, we do our best to support and encourage each student through this process and do not promote a competitive nature amongst the students. If you feel your student(s) may have a difficult time with auditioning, please feel free to contact Windy@ArtiosOutpost.com before camp starts.

General Behavior and Dress Code

The Artios Outpost is an unapologetically Christian and Biblical program. With that in mind, students should conduct themselves as Scripture calls them to. The Artios Outpost uses Philippians 4:8 as a general rule:

Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

It is our hope and prayer that all students will conduct themselves in a manner consistent with this verse. As a result of that verse, we ask the following:

- Students should not use any speech that is unbecoming of Christian men and women which includes all forms of cursing, crude, or lewd jokes/speech, etc.
- Students are to treat each other, staff, and camp directors with respect and are asked to exemplify a Christ-like character in every situation.
- Students should dress modestly and appropriately for a variety of activities
 - No private body parts should be seen from any angle at any time
 - No midriff showing
 - Shorts should not be shorter than the student's fingertips
 - Tank tops should be at least 3 fingers wide
 - No articles of clothing should be worn with crude language, jokes, or words

- Girls should not wear skirts and/or sheer or see through articles of clothing (all students will be extremely active during camp)

Discipline Policy

Our staff at the Artios Outpost is committed to maintaining a fun, uplifting, and safe environment for each student attending. With that in mind, our discipline policy is as follows:

If a correction is given to a student and not followed, he/she will be pulled aside from that activity and be talked to by one of our staff members. If the behavior continues, that student will be asked to sit out of that activity. After a third correction is given, a parent will be notified and asked to pick up their student for the rest of the day. For recurring behavior, a student may be asked to leave the Outpost permanently.
